Awards Serial Killer in the San Francisco Bay area provokes police with his cryptic letters and messages. We follow investigators and journalists in this slightly imaginary account of the real case of the 1970's as they search for the killer, becoming obsessed with the case. Based on Robert Graysmith's book, the focus of the film is the life and career of detectives and newspapers. I'm sorry. "Tom dayzodiac killersteriale killermysterious AssomiserTrue Crimereporter369 Morey you did not display recently welcome pages! For popular question, I decided to add a new forum to discuss the triple murder of Sue Sharp, Johnny Sharp, Dana Wingate, and the disappearance of Tina Sharp or about April 11th 1981 in Keddie, California. No n claim to have "solved" the Keddie case, but I became interested, and people are familiar with my work on the "Zodiac Killer" case asked if I would add a Keddie forum. This keddie forum will not be as closely controlled by me as the zodiachox forum, but I reserve the right to do what I have to do. DMAC (whoever the hell) from KedDie28. as you are more than welcome to participate, but you will not be allowed to bully or harass members here. My main interest in the Keddie case, for the foreseeable future, is to reconstruct, in its best we can, the original investigation of law enforcement. I mean, follow in the footsteps of the original investigators. Only after I'm confident that we've done how to deepen a work to reconstruct the possible investigation, will I charge you with my "theory" of the case. However, others can create new threads of their own, discuss theories, suspicions, etc. Again, the zodiachox forum is reserved to discuss my books on the subject. This Keddie forum is for two mining uses, and the public. For now, mine is focused on collecting and reviewing the original "proof" and documentation of other cases. For now, member of this site may publish new threads under "my" survey advice, but Think if you need to create a new thread. I invite others to create and participate in a broader discussion of the case. I would be interested in finding a moderator (s) for that public debate. For now, I will generate a border for that purpose where members can create threads and get the discussions going. It will start with general arguments such as 'victim', theory, etc. Let me know if you want to (co-) moderate that advice. He's known for his work on the Zodiac killer case. Graysmith worked as a political cartoonist for the San Francisco Chronicle in the 1969, when the Zodiac killer case became important. Try to decode the letters written by the killer and obsessed with the case for the next thirteen years. Graysmith wrote two books on the case; its 1986 1986 Zodiac was the basis for the 2007 film of the same name. He eventually gave up his career as a cartoonist to write five more high-profile crime books, one of which became the basis for the film Auto Focus (2002). Graysmith's personal life was married to Margaret Ann Womack, a nurse, from 1963 to 1973. He then married Melanie Krakower in 1975, but they divorced in the 1980s. He attributes his failed marriage directly to his intense interest in the Zodiac case. [1] The film Zodiac (2007), directed by David Fincher, was based on his books and included Jake Gyllenhaal as Graysmith. Bibliography Zodiac. New York: St. Martin's Press. 1986.
